CROWN IMPORTS AND CONSTELLATION SERVICES DONATE TO CHILDREN'S MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

CHICAGO – December 2009 – In the spirit of giving during the holidays, Crown Imports and Constellation Services donated $10,000 to Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago at the company's annual holiday party. In addition, employees contributed toys, gift cards and monetary donations at the event.

Pictured at right: Bruce Jacobson, executive vice president of national sales for Crown Imports presented the check to Courtney Rohrbach, Affiliated Organizations Coordinator for Children's Memorial Foundation.

Crown has partnered with Children's Memorial Hospital since 2005 through the "Corona Cares" program. The "Corona Cares" program, which kicks off during the Cinco de Mayo selling season, was initiated by Crown Imports and local wholesalers to benefit sick kids and their families at Children's Memorial Hospital. It has since expanded to additional markets and benefits other charities, including the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Total donations for the life of the program have exceeded $75,000.

The money raised helps fund care for the most critically ill kids, pediatric research, as well as programs that support hospitalized children and their families emotionally, socially and developmentally.

"The holidays are about giving and we are very happy to make this donation to Children's Memorial Hospital," said Jacobson. "We hope this helps make the season a little bit better for the children and their families."
