'CORONA CARES' PROGRAM DONATES PROCEEDS TO CHILDREN'S MEMORIAL HOSPITAL IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO – February 2007 – The 'Corona Cares' donation program wrapped up its second year by raising $13,775, which it donated to Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago, IL. Pictured (l-r) are Tara Noronha, development officer, Children's Memorial Foundation, John Taylor, district manager, Crown Imports, Noell Vaughn, district manager, Crown Imports, Jim Gobby, Crown brand manager, Hayes Distributing, Alsip, IL and Scott Barcenilla, retail promotions manager, Crown Imports.

The 'Corona Cares' program, which runs during the Cinco de Mayo selling season (April & May), was implemented in 2005 and 2006 by Crown Imports (formerly Barton Beers) and Chicago wholesalers to benefit sick kids and their families. Crown provides all of the necessary tools to Chicagoland-area wholesalers including, 'Corona Cares' paper limes that are sold in retail accounts, customized pennant strings, and a graphics CD for use in creating banners and posters.

The money raised will be used for a variety of purposes including, helping fund care for the most critically ill kids, pediatric research, as well as programs to support hospitalized children and their families emotionally, socially and developmentally.

"After the great success of the 'Corona Cares' program in 2005, we are extremely pleased to be able to donate once again in 2006 to such a worthy cause," said Noell Vaughn of Crown Imports. "We hope it will help to bring smiles to countless children's faces. We would also like to extend our thanks to the participating Chicago-area wholesalers and retailers for making this kickoff a success."
