CROWN IMPORTS HOSTS 'CORONA CARES' IN CHICAGO FOR CHILDREN'S MEMORIAL HOSPITAL IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO – June 2009 – Crown Imports corporate employees raised their Corona's at the recent 'Corona Cares' fundraiser in Chicago. Four local accounts—Emerald Loop, The State, Timothy O'Toole's and Halligan's—hosted the event, which generated donations for Children's Memorial Hospital.

The 'Corona Cares' program, which kicks off during the Cinco de Mayo selling season, was initiated in 2005 by Crown Imports and local wholesalers to benefit sick kids and their families at Children's Memorial Hospital. Total donations for the life of the program have exceeded $50,000. Crown provides all of the necessary tools to Chicagoland-area wholesalers including, 'Corona Cares' paper limes that are sold in retail accounts, customized pennant strings, and a graphics CD for use in creating banners and posters.

The money raised through the program is used for a variety of purposes including, helping fund care for the most critically ill kids, pediatric research, as well as programs that support hospitalized children and their families emotionally, socially and developmentally.
