CROWN IMPORTS/CORONA EXTRA AWARDS SCHOLARSHIP TO UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS at CHICAGO MEDICAL STUDENT

CHICAGO – September 2008 – The Crown Imports/Corona Extra Endowed Scholarship was awarded to University of Illinois at Chicago medical student Suzanne Gonzalez.

The $1500 scholarship was presented by Dr. Jorge Girotti, director of the Hispanic Center of Excellence at UIC, and Guillermo Gutierrez, director of Hispanic marketing for Crown Imports, Corona's exclusive U.S. importer.

The Crown Imports/Corona Extra Endowed Scholarship was established in August, 2000 and is managed by the University of Illinois Foundation. The scholarship is awarded to one medical student each year that is enrolled in good standing in the College of Medicine at the University of Illinois at Chicago. Preference is given to Hispanic students who demonstrate unmet needs for financial aid.

"We are excited to be able to provide an annual scholarship that helps give back to the Hispanic community via enhancing educational opportunities for Latino medical students," said Bill Ligas, public relations director for Crown Imports.

"This is a great partnership for Crown Imports and the UIC Hispanic Center of Excellence," said Guillermo Gutierrez, director of Hispanic marketing for Crown Imports. "We look forward to working with this great institution for many years to come and helping to aid deserving students."

The UIC College of Medicine was named one of the Best Schools for Hispanics in the September 2008 issue of Hispanic Business magazine, qualifying in five areas that demonstrate commitment to diversity measures toward Hispanics: Hispanic faculty, enrollment, student services, retention rate and reputation.
